Win Smith Trophy

SIOUX CITY, Iowa—Airman First Class Richard H. Williams, son of the Gilbert Williamses of 516 Welch Ave., Bastrop, La., provided essential support to help his organization win the coveted Smith Trophy as the best air defense ground unit in the U.S. Air Force.

Airman Williams is a member of the Air Defense Command's (ADC) 30th Air Division, which received the trophy during ceremonies at Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 19. The airman is assigned at Hastings Air Force Station, Neb., as an administrative specialist.

The airman is a graduate of Morehouse High School.

His wife, Mary, is the daughter of the David Malones of 800 Woodland Ave., Ruston, La.

The airman's division, headquartered at Sioux City Air Base and composed of 23 widely-scattered units, maintains air surveillance over the U.S. Central plains with the Semi-Automatic Ground Environment
